

Russell, both longtime chairmen of their respective armed services committees who also made historic contributions to national security. He certainly did them proud. In carrying on their tradition, he won the admiration of his colleagues on both sides of the aisle and achieved international recognition for helping secure peace and freedom throughout much of the world. And he did it his way—not with conflict and confrontation, but through the exercise of quiet strength, deep knowledge, and thoughtful statesmanship.

While he will be most prominently remembered for his work on defense and national security, Senator Nunn did much more. He helped restore fiscal responsibility and efficiency in federal government, fought for land conservation and the environment, attacked drug abuse, and promoted a spirit of citizenship and patriotism in our state and across the country.

Again, I rise in strong support of this measure and I urge all of my colleagues to do the same.

Mr. KIM. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this bill, asking for an "aye" vote, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. KIM) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 613, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The title of the bill was amended so as to read: "A bill to designate the Federal building located at 61 Forsyth Street SW., in Atlanta, Georgia, as the 'Sam Nunn Atlanta Federal Center'."

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Mr. KIM. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure be discharged from further consideration of the Senate bill (S. 347) to designate the Federal building located at 100 Alabama Street NW, in Atlanta, Georgia, as the "Sam Nunn Federal Center" and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the Senate bill, as follows:

S. 347

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. DESIGNATION OF SAM NUNN FEDERAL CENTER.

The Federal building located at 100 Alabama Street NW, in Atlanta, Georgia, shall be known and designated as the "Sam Nunn Federal Center".

SEC. 2. REFERENCES.

Any reference in a law, map, regulation, document, paper, or other record of the United States to the Federal building referred to in section 1 shall be deemed to be a reference to the "Sam Nunn Federal Center".

MOTION OFFERED BY MR. KIM

Mr. KIM. Mr. Speaker, I offer a motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. KIM moves to strike all after the enacting clause of the Senate bill, S. 347, and insert in lieu thereof the text of H.R. 613, as passed the House.

Motion was agreed to.

The Senate bill was ordered to be read a third time, was read the third time, and passed.

The title of the Senate bill was amended so as to read: "A bill to designate the Federal building located at 61 Forsyth Street SW., in Atlanta, Georgia, as the 'Sam Nunn Atlanta Federal Center'."

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

A similar House bill (H.R. 613) was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. KIM. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks and to include extraneous materials on H.R. 613 and S. 347, the bills just passed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

THE FEDERAL BUDGET

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 7, 1997, the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. NEUMANN) is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the majority leader.

Mr. NEUMANN. Mr. Speaker, today CBO or the Congressional Budget Office, the agency that is responsible for tracking revenues and expenditures of the United States Government on behalf of the House of Representatives and the Senate, released a new set of estimates. And it does verify that for the first time since 1969, we are going to have a surplus in fiscal year 1998. This is great news for America. The first time since 1969, I was a sophomore in high school, the United States Government spent less money than what they had in their checkbook.

To me when I came here 3 years ago, this was deemed an impossible dream. When we said we were going to balance the budget by the year 2002, people looked at us, yawned and basically said, we do not believe you, because they had made so many broken promises in the past. Today we stand here with final documentation and verification that in fact the budget is not only balanced, but we are running a surplus.

CBO, the scoring agency or the agency responsible for making predictions here in Washington, is suggesting that we have about a 5, maybe a $10 billion surplus. I would like to go a step further than that. I believe the surplus is much more significant than that. I believe that we will run a surplus in fiscal year 1998 in excess of $25 billion.

I think it is worth talking about where we are from a budgetary point of view, where we are going to and especially how Social Security fits into this overall picture because I have just
